Finn and Co. American Beauty - Black Sand and White Sand Luxury Fragrance Oils

Finn & Co. American Beauty Black Sand and Finn & Co. American Beauty White Sand are classic luxury fragrance oils designed by owner Meg Spencer that are sexy, sensuous, and sporty roll-on fragrances that are perfect for travel. As a frequent air traveler, size does matter when packing and I found that both of these lovely fragrance oils handily fit the bill of having a convenient size as well as a desirable scent. Containing 10 ml (0.34 fl. oz.) of liquid, you can easily fit both of them in your carry-on luggage or in your evening bag for a night on the town.

As TSA travel guidelines state (as of April 2014), all liquids in carry-on luggage must be in individual containers with a maximum capacity of 3.4 oz/100 ml each, placed in a clear plastic zip-top bag no larger than 8-inches x 8-inches (20-cm x 20-cm) or quart/1-liter bag. With Finn & Co. Black Sand's and Finn & Co. White Sand's compact size 10 ml (0.34 fl. oz.) you can bring both along on your next trip. Although small in stature, these luxury fragrance oils applied to your pulse points create a definite impact, and along the lines of all good fashion, they make a tasteful yet memorable statement.

For a recent trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, I was looking for a new fragrance that I could easily pack in my carry-on bag, and found Finn & Co.'s new Black Sand and Finn & Co.'s White Sand luxury fragrance oils. I tried them, I liked them, and I packed both of them in my carry-on luggage, one to wear in the evening, and one for daytime use. Finn & Co. Black Sand luxury fragrance oil "inspired by the Little Black Dress" infused with jojoba and apricot seed oil was perfect for evening with its warm, sultry, and musky notes of sandalwood and vanilla.

Finn & Co. Gift Set

Finn & Co. White Sand luxury fragrance oil, "inspired by the classic white tee" was my "go-to" daytime fragrance with its fresh, sporty, and lighter floral notes of honeysuckle and mandarin, and like its' sister fragrance, is infused with jojoba and apricot seed oil.

Although perfect for travel, Finn & Co. Black Sand and Finn & Co. White Sand luxury fragrance oils are equally at home tucked into an evening bag for a night on the town, or into a work bag for whenever you need a little fragrance pick-me-up. It also helps to imagine running along a beautiful beach somewhere warm ...
