As a bit of an introduction, Irvin Mayfield is a multi-Grammy® winner, Billboard Music Award winner, the New Orleans Cultural Ambassador, the youngest member (and the only musician) of the National Council on the Arts (named by two presidents), founder and artistic director of the New Orleans Jazz Orchestra, and the first artistic director of Jazz of the Minnesota Orchestra, which he holds among his many accolades he has incurred in his career. Â

The release opens with the traditional Christmas song, O Tannenbaum - O Christmas Tree, which takes on a new rhythm with its brass band sound. Next is the line-up is the Franz Xavier Gruber and Joseph Mohr song, Silent Night written in 1818, to which Irvin and the band do justice, with John Chin's piano leading the way interspersed with beautiful horns. Â

Other highlights include the 1934 song, Winter Wonderland, written by Felix Bernard with lyrics by Richard B. Smith, which picks up the pace and features Ronald Markham on piano, followed by the Mel Tormé and Robert Wells dreamy The Christmas Song, with Irvin Mayfield's beautiful trumpet complemented by John Chin on piano.
