Oriente López Trio "Plan B" Personnel: Oriente López: piano, keyboards, flutes, accordion, vocals, Itaiguara Brandão: electric bass, Mauricio Zottarelli: drums and percussion, Special Guests: Paquito D'Rivera: alto sax and clarinet, Luis Felipe Lamoglia on tenor sax, Hendrik Meurkens on harmonica, and Romero Lubambo on guitar.

Oriente López wrote all the music for Aguas Profundas, as well as produced it for OHL Music.

For those not familiar with the talented Oriente López, as a way of introduction, we had the pleasure of experiencing him play at the Southampton Arts Center in Southampton, New York with Nilson Matta's Brazilian Voyage in late March 2017 where he played with Nilson and Mauricio Zottarelli, who plays on Aguas Profundas, and were impressed with his mastery and style on both piano and flute. In addition to being a musician, he is also a musical director, composer, arranger, producer, and multi-Grammy winner (2004 - Land Of The Sun with Charlie Haden and Gonzalo Rubalcaba, and 2001 - Paquito D'Rivera Quintet Live at The Blue Note with Paquito D'Rivera), he won an ASCAP plus USA award for composing from 2000 - 2011, and received the EGREM award from Cuba for two 1988 recordings, Eclipse de Sol with AfroCuba, and Causas Y Azares with Silvio Rodriguez and AfroCuba.

The 13-track release opens with the lively Centro Habana featuring the legendary 14-Grammy award winner, Paquito D'Rivera on alto sax joining Oriente, Itaiguara Brandão, and Mauricio Zottarelli. Next in the line-up is the title track, Aguas Profundas with special guest, Brazilian Jazz guitarist, Romero Lubambo working his magic, and Oriente playing both piano and flute on this amazing track that flows effortlessly, then segues into the song AEIOU where special guest Henrik Meurkens layers in the harmonica.

Drum enthusiasts will appreciate Mauricio Zottarelli's long drum solo on Hurry Up, followed by the track, Chase where once again Romero Lubambo joins the trio and blends in his guitar rhythms. The release continues with the track Congoja, a perfect vehicle to highlight Oriente López's exceptionally fine piano work. Carrusel is just the trio and that is more than enough to create a dynamic piece, and on Midtown

Waltz, Henrick Meurkens returns to add harmonica.

The release continues with Sabor Intelectual, which translates from Spanish to Intellectual Flavor, which indeed it is, with Cuban-born Paquito D'Rivera on clarinet, Cuban-born Oriente López on piano, and Brazilians Romero Lubambo on guitar, Itaguara Brandão on electric bass, and Mauricio Zottarelli on drums and percussion. The track Waitonce again features the core trio.

SOS opens with special guest Luis Felipe Lamoglia layering in the tenor sax, then the trio finishes strongly with the track, Tornado, and the closing track Umbra, which slows the pace, and brings the listener down gently to reflect and catch one's breath on this masterfully crafted release. From start to finish, Aguas Profundas is like a long, cool drink of water on a hot day; completely satisfying.
