Romeo + Juliet Fall Winter 2018 Collection

For more than 30 years Designer David Shamouelian has known how to create a buzz for his collections, and for his Fall Winter 2018 Runway Show at Cipriani 42nd Street® he once again hit the bullseye. Taking inspiration from the 1970s and the Rock world, the collection featured floral prints, plaids, minis, and flowing granny dresses, updated for 2018.

Other highlights included a red and black plaid fringed jacket paired with a graphic print black t-shirt and low riding black jeans, and a black below the hip jacket with double-belted sleeves and a wide fur collar. Animal prints still roar especially when paired with a high neck sheer black shoulder baring blouse with asymmetrical ruffle.
